REACH OUT

Pray for the Holy Spirit to grant you boldness and to lead you to a person who will be receptive. We believe that there are many 'good works prepared beforehand' and all we have to do is be obedient to meet them which is doing the good work.

TALKING

The conversation can be as simple as going into a local coffee shop, fast food restaurant, or local eatery. (Hello, I am ____), or if you prefer (Hello, I am ____ from the Lutheran Church by the Gas station. How are you doing today? I want to introduce myself and ask you to share your spiritual journey with me if you have time? I'll even buy you a coffee.)

SHARING

If they want to talk, engage them with other questions. How long have you lived in the neighborhood? What do you know about our ministry? Would it be OK for me to contact you later with some other questions?

LISTENING

This is not a hard sell. Just introduce yourself and let the Lord take it from there. It is time to listen, not to correct, not to judge but to listen, learn, and have a new experience of engaging people with the Good News of Jesus.

This is the beginning of making inroads to the new community and culture. God will grant us success and as efforts begin to bear fruit, we can talk about it among congregation members and watch them get excited.
